How is your financial adviser paid?

The fees and commissions payable to Sofcorp Financial Services are explained in Part one of the FSG and also below. Consultum may retain up to 5 per cent of these fees and commissions and then pay the balance to Sofcorp Financial Services, which engages your adviser to provide financial services. Of the amount received by Sofcorp Financial Services from Consultum, your adviser is paid a salary, part of which may cover your adviser's operational expenses.

Service and advice fees paid by you

At your initial appointment, Tracey will explain how Sofcorp Financial Services operates, what you can expect and the payment options. All fees and commissions payable by you will be explained to you at the time advice is given and will also be detailed in a Statement of Advice, Record of Advice and Product Disclosure Statement(s).

You will have the ability to select your preferred payment option from the options below prior to the provision of advice. All amounts noted below are inclusive of GST:

Statement of Advice (SoA) – A statement of advice fee is charged to cover the cost of researching, developing and preparing your advice document. This fee generally ranges from $500 to $2,500, however depending on the complexity of the advice sought, this fee may be higher. We will advise the exact fee prior to commencing any work on your behalf.

Fee for service – ongoing – An ongoing fee for service represents the cost of providing our ongoing professional services to you. A summary of the services which you receive for this fee is contained in the SoA or in our services agreement. This fee may be up to 2 per cent per annum of assets under advice or a fixed monthly fee and will be negotiated depending on the complexity of the advice and the agreed level of service being provided.

Commission for life risk insurance products – An initial commission of up to 130 per cent of the first year's annual premium and then ongoing commission of up to 40 per cent of the annual premium paid.

Other benefits

Apart from the "Other benefits" section disclosed in part one, there are no other benefits received or relationships that may influence the recommendation.
